

HARDING SAYS ALASKA IS "ALL RIGHT"

BACK TO AMERICAN SOIL AFTER VISIT TO THE FAR NORTH

Delivers an Address at Seattle Reporting to the American People His Findings—States What Should be Done to Aid Alaska and its People—Left Seattle Last Night

(By The Associated Press)
BULLETIN

SEATTLE, Wash., July 27.—President Harding returned from his Alaskan trip today and in an address delivered here reported to the American people that he had found nothing wrong with their great northern territory, that there is no broad problem of Alaska, and that Alaska "is all right and is doing well."

"I do not believe Alaska can be forced, or that it should be," he added.
"There is no need of government-managed, federally-paid-for hot house development. There must be no reckless sacrificing of resources which ought to be held permanent in order to turn them into immediate profits. Where there is possibility of betterment in the federal machinery of administration, improvements should and will be effected. But there is no need for sweeping reorganization."

BETTER HEALTH THRU BETTER FOOD IS PLAN

Campaign is Already Under Way in a Dozen States

(By The Associated Press)
WATERLOO, Iowa, July 27.—(By The A. P.)—Continuation of a larger scale of educational work among mothers and school children and greater insistence on sanitary methods in the production of dairy foods, were the chief points of the program adopted here today by the national dairy council.

The campaign already under way in a dozen states is to be broadened to include all the large cities of the country and is designed to promote public health thru wholesome foods and at the same time to assure dairymen and dairy food manufacturers of a greater market.
Today's session closed the business meeting of the council's semi-annual conference here the first ever held in one of the chief dairying states. Tomorrow the delegates are to be guests of the Iowa State Dairymen's council on a tour of nearby counties in which the bulk of Iowa dairy foods are produced. It will be the first opportunity many of the delegates have had to observe the co-operative dairy industry in operation.

Work Among Children.
The council's work among school children, delegates were told today has been endorsed by school and public health officials in virtually all the eastern centers of population. The 92 field workers are to broaden their activities and new councils are to be formed where the support of dairy interests can be enlisted. To these workers was given a large share of the credit for the 41 per cent increase in dairy food consumption in 1921.

Units of the organization are now active in Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Columbus, Minneapolis and St. Paul and in California, Oregon and Idaho.

SHIP BRINGING HARDING PARTY HAS COLLISION

Barely Escapes Sinking Destroyer Zeilin in Harbor

(By The Associated Press)
SEATTLE, Wash., July 27.—(By The A. P.)—When President Harding and his official party returned today to the Continental United States from their visit to Alaska and Vancouver their ship narrowly escaped the Destroyer Zeilin, one of the escort ships, which blinded by fog and battling with strong currents in the channel off Port Townsend, was blown off its course and into the path of the navy transport Henderson bearing the chief executive and Mrs. Harding. The destroyer was seriously damaged and when the Henderson continued its way to port the destroyer was left listing heavily to port, a hole torn in its side and three of its sister ships holding fast with two lines.

Officers' Quick Work.
Officers on the bridge when the ships collided gave full credit to the quick orders of Captain Buchanan, commanding the Henderson, which they declared averted an even more serious damage to the destroyer and probably prevented it being cut in half. According to witnesses on the Henderson, the destroyer was first sighted crossing the transport's bow in a position to be rammed amidship and too close to the approaching ship for it to avoid hitting.

Captain Buchanan was on the bridge at the time. His ship also was laboring against tide, smothered by the fog, and running slowly ahead with fog horns open to full blast. One of the Henderson's pilots said Captain Buchanan's orders were given in advance of his and caused the ship's engines to be reversed to full speed to the stern, throwing the bow off its course and, in the grip of the tide swinging it to a degree sufficient to prevent it from crashing squarely into the side of the destroyer.

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE WANTED BY DILL

Says That Relief Must be Provided for the Farmer

(By The Associated Press)
SPOKANE, Wn., July 27.—United Senator C. C. Dill, today in a telegram requested President Harding to call a special session of congress to enact legislation for the relief of the farmer.
The telegram addressed to the president today at Seattle read: "Owing to the low price of wheat and the high cost of production, the farmers of the country are unable to meet their debts, and this applies doubly to the farmers of the northwest because of crop failures for several years past, although this year's crop in the northwest is good."
"Because of this condition I respectfully urge you to consider the advisability of calling a special session of congress at once for the purpose of enacting legislation to insure higher prices for farm products."

In a statement made public with the telegram, Senator Dill declared: "We have a tariff that enables our manufacturers to charge the cost of production plus a profit. If that policy is to continue then we should have legislation that will urge the farmer to charge the cost of production plus profit."

Sweetser Loses Golf Match to Chick Evans

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND O., July 27.—Missing an 18 inch putt on the second extra hole after running up debt from all over the green all day and sinking many long today cost Jess Sweetser, national champion his golf match with Chick Evans in the semi-finals at Mayfield Club of the Western Amateur Championship, which Evans was defending for the seventh time.

Sweetser after heading much of the forenoon round was averted and put one down at the eighteenth by Chick's fine round of 69, but he in turn overhauled an Evans' lead of three up and squared the match at the 36th, only to lose at the 38th by failing to sink a wisp of a putt for a half in five on the 34 yard hole after he had saved himself on the 385, thirty seventh by holing a 12 foot putt for a half in par 4.

A Ding Dong Battle.
It was a ding-dong battle of the links from start to finish, both committing faults and playing supernatural golf at times in what they considered a return meet for the defeat Sweetser administered to Evans last year at Brookline in the national championship where the Yale student overcame the former national and open title holder three and two in the finals.
As a result of his victory over the national champion Evans will play Hamilton Gardner of Buffalo in the finals tomorrow. The New Yorker having eliminated Joe Wells of East Liverpool, Ohio, four and three.

A large gallery followed the contest and so intense did the close scrimmage range that many spectators in their eagerness to hang to every shot lost their balance and plunged down the steep hills that line many of the fairways at Mayfield. At one hole at the top of a hill, Sweetser pulled his long iron into the gallery but hurt no one altho the mass of humanity kept the ball from going over the cliff. This did him no good, for the deadly Evans was all but down in two while Sweetser was twelve feet away.

Great Crowds Present.
Word of the closeness of the morning round spread and when the second round started at 2 o'clock the fairway was lined three deep all the way to the green. Evans had lost the fifth, sixth and seventh holes in the morning after halving the first four and was three down, but turned for home two down after halving the eighth in two and winning the ninth in a birdie three. INQUEST ON DEATH OF MERCHANT PUT OFF UNTIL MONDAY

Woman in Case Gives Her Version of Difficulty

(By The Associated Press)
MORRIS, Ill., July 27.—An inquest into the death of E. J. Beach, well-to-do merchant of Joliet, Ill., who was shot and killed by Deputy Sheriff Clay Herrod here last night was continued today until next Monday.

According to Miss Jane Remington, formerly a close friend of Beach's, he had been annoying her recently and last night when she saw a man lurking in a vacant lot near her home she went in search of a policeman but found the deputy sheriff who offered to investigate.

Deputy Sheriff Herrod said he came upon Beach standing behind a tree near Miss Remington's home and ordered him to put up his hands. He said he caught a piece of metal and thought Beach had drawn a pistol and so fired twice, both shots taking effect and killing Beach.

The metal the deputy sheriff had seen was a "pair of binoculars."
Miss Remington, 26 years old and graduate of a school of expression was known as a very attractive young woman and appeared recently in several dramatic productions. She refused to discuss the cause of the ending of her friendship with Beach. The deputy sheriff was not held but was ordered to appear at the inquest.

MANY LIVES ARE ENDANGERED BY BIG EXPLOSION

Ammonia Fumes Are Spread Over Several City Blocks

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 27.—Hundreds of tenement house dwellers in the vicinity of East Seventieth and Exterior streets were imperiled late today when an ammonia pipe exploded in the plant of the Knickerbocker ice company spreading the powerful fumes thru several blocks.

The fire department rescue squad equipped with gas masks was rushed to the scene and began the work of getting persons out of the danger zone. Ambulances were called out to remove those overcome.

No one was believed to have been killed by the explosion. A similar accident occurred in the plant about a year ago, driving the inhabitants of the tenements to the street. Consequently they covered their faces with towels, knowing from experience that this was the safest way to escape the fumes.

Twenty employees were in the plant when the explosion occurred, and all were affected by the ammonia fumes. Six were carried to the street by the others but later were able to go to their homes.

The machine flew in total darkness from Cleveland. It was well over Pennsylvania when day broke. From Chicago to Cleveland, the fliers were aided by the light of a full moon. The average speed was 100 miles an hour.

It was planned to return to Chicago by daylight tomorrow.

NO EXTRA SESSION FOR THESE FARMERS

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 27.—The South Dakota Wheat Growers' association is opposed to the suggestion that a special session of congress be called to set a price on wheat, according to a statement issued today by J. E. Kelley, president of the association which has its headquarters here.

"All we ask of the lawmakers is to stand by match the fight between the wheat producer and the grain trader," President Kelley gave as reasons for opposing a session of congress could not be called before 65 per cent of the 1923 crop was out of the hands of the producers and that such legislation could be only temporary.

He also characterized as unfair legislation to stabilize one commodity as against others.

OVER-PRODUCTION OF CRUDE OIL TO CAUSE SHUT-DOWN

Mid-Continent Refineries to Close During August—Must Re-Adjust Oil Industry—Gasoline Storage Stocks Mounting—Production Greatly Exceeds Consumption

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 27.—Plans for a complete shutdown of refineries in the mid-continent oil fields for the entire month of August were unanimously approved today by representatives of twenty-five of the largest producing companies in the territory meeting here at the call of the Western Petroleum Refiners' association, the American Oil Men's association and the National Petroleum Marketers' association.

The refinery capacity of the territory is approximately 750,000 barrels of crude daily, a large portion of which has been inoperative for many weeks because of the end-lend flood of California crude into the normal markets of the mid-continent producers.

The net result of the proposed action, according to a leading statistician of the industry, would be a reduction in the refinery output of approximately 60,000 barrels daily during August as compared with runs in the last half of July when the output averaged about 300,000 barrels a day.

On this basis it was pointed out the reduction in the field would amount to approximately twenty per cent. Other estimates of the net result of the curtailment ran as high as 80,000 barrels daily. The run for the field for the first six months of 1923 have ranged between 300,000 and 320,000 barrels.

An explanation of the readjustment of the American Oil Industry which brought about action was offered by President E. W. Marland of the Marland Oil company, who urged public support of the move as one necessary to conserve the nation's oil resources during the present period of over-production.

Cosden and company of Tulsa, whose daily capacity is approximately 35,000 barrels of crude, is the largest operation in the list marked for closing.

The period of suspended operations is looked to as the only means of relief by the refiners of the Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas fields, in all of which storage stocks of gasoline have been rapidly mounting for months until "the point of saturation is now in sight."

California Responsible.
In a word, according to Mr. Marland, the situation is due to the tremendous production in the California fields, now turning out well over eight hundred thousand barrels of crude daily against approximately three hundred thousand at about this period last year.

Nation's daily average crude production for the week ending July 21, 1923, was 2,255,000 barrels; the figure for the corresponding week of last year was smaller by approximately 1,000,000 barrels.

The nominal yearly increase in gasoline consumption is approximately 25 per cent. The increase in crude production this year over last is approximately ninety per cent.

"Our decision to close down is merely a step to necessary means of relief," declared the Marland chief. "It is not only a step in the public interest but also a step in the public interest of deserving of popular approval, but is an action which ought to be obligatory upon every refiner in the field."

A meeting of all Mid-Continent refiners at Kansas City July 31, to perfect plans for action has been arranged for the week following today's meeting.

Association Statement.
The statement made public at the headquarters of the American Oil Men's association declared: "In order to conserve for the public and insure a sufficient supply of gasoline for the future, the larger number of refineries in the mid-continent field have determined upon a complete shut down of manufacturing plants during August."

"It is the opinion of the refiners who have announced their intention of closing down, that refined products evaporate to a much greater extent than the raw materials, crude oil."

"The shutdown movement will result in a great good to the industry and the public by balancing the supply and demand of refined oils and conserving the supply for future use."

Meets Approval.
"At the director's meeting of the Western Petroleum Refiners' association Friday the shutdown plans received unanimous approval and a general meeting of all refiners in the Mid-Continent field was called for July 31 at Kansas City, to perfect plans accordingly."

BILLIONAIRES IN NAME BUT REALLY BROKE

Tourists Unable to Get Money to Continue Journeys

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, July 27.—Berlin was a city of penniless billionaires tonight. Bank deposits and foreign bills of exchange were useless as the banks had only small amounts of currency, which were paid out today in small bills and rationed until the supply was exhausted. Many tourists were unable to get money enough to continue their journeys. The banks promise to have currency tomorrow but no large bills are yet available in Berlin and foreign monies are entirely out of circulation.

The food shops in various parts of the city have exhausted their supplies of sugar, flour, rice and other staples and the police have been ordered to give special protection to food transports. The reichsbank will not make any new quotation on mark exchange until Monday. The present official rate is 760,000 marks to the dollar but speculators today were giving 900,000.

MORE ARRESTS IN BOGUS MONEY PLOT

HONOLULU, T. H., July 27.—Federal officials today obtained warrants for the arrest of two more Japanese in connection with the alleged international counterfeiting unearched here.

One of the Japanese is charged with making a bogus $20 note. The other is charged with passing 10 counterfeit $20 bills in December, 1922.

Today's warrants make a total of 11 issued in this connection. Ten of the persons accused are in custody.

A list of concerns which had definitely decided upon the action for their own operations was appended. It represented a daily capacity of 112,250 barrels.

Mr. Marland's review of the developments in the industry during the past year which culminated today in the virtual surrender of a large section of the American market at least temporarily to the California producers and refiners charged the action to "most unusual series of events" centering about overwhelming and unforeseen production in the Golden State during the past seven months.

Dr. Ales Hrdlicka of the United States National Museum, who has been studying complexions and hair, reports that real blonds are far rarer than most people suppose, and true redheads are rarer still. Only one man in 50, he says, has red hair. That is a great pity, when one considers the attributes usually associated with such hair, and the part that it has played in history. Redheads, with all their stubborn self-assertiveness, are the salt of the earth—or rather, the pepper. But there are five redheaded women to one redheaded man. What do you make of that?

One of the questions that the county board must settle sooner or later is the right plan for the operation of Oak Lake. Records show that about one-third of the total county taxes are going to the maintenance of the sanatorium and that the average cost of maintenance of patients there is more than $1,000 a year. This is a problem in which the whole public is interested and the best thought of the county should be used to its proper solution.

It has been suggested that a roof be built over the Blooming reservoir to keep the water free from vegetation and from contamination in other ways. It is not a roof but a bottom that the west end reservoir in Jacksonville needs, for records of the department show the loss of nearly 160,000 gallons of water a day through leakage. No doubt the final and best solution will be found to be the construction of a stand pipe with large capacity.

Watchful waiting seems to be about the best policy for Jacksonville to pursue with reference to the C. P. and St. L. sale. The published statements go to show that the road cannot be run profitably and an investment in the Jacksonville to Havana branch is not alluring. At any rate, let us hope that some corporation or individual buys the shops and operates them.

This is a matter of the greatest importance to Jacksonville as the time was that these shops constituted one of the most important of local industries.

Senator Johnson's presentation of opposition to the international court plan as advanced by President Harding is interesting and informing. However, the arguments advanced show nothing new as the result of the senator's several months study abroad. The fact that so many senators and congressmen are in Europe studying conditions has been mentioned before, with the suggestion that there may be benefits to the U. S. in the fund of information thus made available. The trouble seems to be that the impressions of Europe and the possibility as to what the U. S. can and should do seem to be almost as numerous as the statesmen. It is very likely that a majority of senators and congressmen will return with the ideas that they had before making their trips more accentuated.

More than 260 students out of 1635 at Northwestern University failed in their studies. Northwestern doesn't believe itself peculiar among institutions in this respect, and is trying to discover the reason for such a high percentage of flunkers.

Investigation shows that those who fail are not on the whole less intelligent than those who do not. They simply have failed to apply their abilities to their studies or to useful recreation. They have been swamped by diversified interests, commonly known as "outside activities."

In many institutions a student's participation in outside activities is regulated by a unit system just as the number of hours of curriculum work is regulated. If scholarship shows signs of suffering, the student is made to give up some of the outside activities. Yet in spite of these precautions, the flunking goes on.

Diversified interests probably cannot justly be credited with all the blame, although they may be a large contributing cause. It might be a good idea to ask the flunkers themselves what is wrong and get them to suggest a remedy.

Every day brings its suggestion as to what should be done to help along the American wheat farmer, who is in a bad way at least where the yield is light. The most significant and most promising suggestion is one which appeared yesterday in the Chicago Tribune, not under big headlines but merely as a paragraph.

Bert H. Lang, former vice president of the U. S. Grain corporation and now vice president of the First National bank of St. Louis said: "Secretary of Agriculture Wallace should give the public the benefit of unrestricted speculative trading in wheat until July 1924."

There are many students of market conditions who declare that the present situation is due mainly to a lack of speculative buying and that there is no speculative buying because the large interests do not care to take on the burden of his multitudinous reports that might be required under existing law if the secretary of agriculture should so desire.

SCOUTS WILL HOLD SOCIAL NEXT WEEK

Troop Seven Appoints Committee to Arrange for Ice Cream Social—Arundel Resigns as Scout Master in Favor of J. L. Reid.

A committee composed of Earl Arundel, Walter Rice, Charles Cornick and Francis Gilbert was appointed from Troop 7, Boy Scouts last evening at Grace church to complete plans for the ice cream social on the Grace Church lawn next Friday night. The social will be given from 5:30 to 8:30, during which time the troop will serve ice cream, cake and lemonade to the customers.

During the meeting last evening the troop was addressed by Reverend T. H. Tull of the church who congratulated the boys on the great work they have been doing and assured them that the church heartily endorsed everything that had been done.

A new principle was adopted by the boys, which consists of a rule for calling all members of the troop by their first names. A thorough drill was given the troop on the boys' given names. The new idea met with hearty approval.

On account of it being necessary to return in a short time to his studies at the University of Illinois, Scoutmaster Russell Arundel resigned at last night's meeting in favor of his assistant, J. Lloyd Reid, who will continue the work thru the winter months.

By resolution, the boys all agreed to call by telephone every day next week all of the members who are ill at their homes and are unable to attend the meetings.

Malcolm Allen, a new member of the troop was obligated during the evening's meeting.

How to build up your Weight

To be under weight is a proven low fighting power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red blood cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red blood cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age line that comes from thinness disappears. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red blood cells! S. S. S. will build them.

S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S. S. S. The World's Best Blood Medicine

Dr. H. S. Thacher, the celebrated stomach specialist, has perfected a purely vegetable tonic that is delicious to take, well suited to the weakened stomach, quick in action and brings lasting relief. Just a tablespoonful after the next meal will make a big difference in the way you feel. Keep this up for a few days and give this nourishing tonic a chance to increase your appetite, strengthen the digestive organs, tone the torpid liver and bowels, cleanse the system, clear up the complexion and send healthier blood coursing through your veins. It will revive that delightful feeling of serenity, energy and "pep."

Arabian Horse Needs Little Food or Care and Can Travel Amazing Distances Without Tiring.

It is a popular notion that the Arabian horse is a particularly delicate animal, most sensitive to adverse influences. Such, however, is not the case. The wants of an Arab horse are few, and it is contended that he will maintain his health and spirits under conditions that no other species of horse could endure. Indeed, it has been pointed out, not only can the Arab stand undergo hardships at a pinch, but he actually deteriorates if too carefully tended. This has been proved by the experiences of European purchasers, who have refused to believe that the usual three feeds of grain a day were too much, or that the morning hour of walking exercise was too little.

As a matter of fact, an Arab horse is naturally high-spirited and so difficult to tire that even a single feed of corn is excessive until he is being subjected to hard work. He will answer every requirement as a hunter if his food be restricted to hay, or even to grass. In the summer he thrives best when he has the run of a paddock and can regulate his own food and exercise.

These observations apply also to the ordinary Arab horse in everyday life. What a picked animal can do when put upon his mettle is almost beyond belief. A British officer in the Sudan found that after a ride of 80 miles his Arab horse showed no signs of overwork, although he had sold all his shoes before a quarter of the journey had been accomplished.

Brilliant Idea.
A good old professor of astronomy wanted to earn a little money on the side. He needed it. But his ideas about business methods were nebulous. An astute layman suggested that he advertise classes in astronomy, with a stiff enrollment fee. The professor admitted that culture might be looking up, but expressed a fear that few men would care for instruction in astronomy.

"That's all right," persisted his friend. "Plenty of married poker players would like to get out a few evenings. You advertise your classes. I'll guarantee you get a satisfactory enrollment."

The irate customer shook his portrait in the photographer's face.

"Do I look like this picture? The thing's an outrage! Why, you've given me an awful squint and the look of a prize-fighting bully. Now, answer me, and no nonsense about it! Do you call that a good likeness?"

The photographer scanned the print, then looked at the customer. "The answer," he said, "is in the negative."

And the customer went away with a look of deep thought on his face.

Chicago Woman Tells of Jays of Travel in the Klondike Region—Its Cats and Dogs.

Here's a jolly note in a private letter to the editor from a Chicago lady who spent last winter and spring in the Bahamas and South Carolina, and then "I got home with the flu buster out of my energy, so as soon as I got my clothes mended I started off again and had a glorious trip up to Dawson and an auto trip into the Klondike region. And now I am sorry I did not get on an ore boat and go out to St. Michael and over to Nome, but there will be a next time for that country. I am sure.

By the way—here is a natural history fact for you. All the cats in Dawson have beautifully thick fur and nicely rounded tips to their ears because they get the thin, pointy ends frozen off in winter. I know, because I saw most of the feline population, and a black kitten told me the reason for the special style in cats' ears in Dawson. But those huskies—for the first time I have seen a snar dog than a St. Bernard! Soulful eyes, and a pelt and a size to make any ordinary Klondike burst into a million pieces with envy and just as friendly as the malamutes are not. If I do not quit, I'll be weeping all over this bag. I am anxious to get back to the Klondike country—seems as if 80 degrees below wouldn't freeze me out!"

MEN ACCUSED OF ASSAULT BROUGHT SAFELY TO JAIL

Were Brought to Cairo Under Guard of Militia

CAIRO, Ill., July 27.—James Hazelwood, deputy sheriff, and Andrew Corbett, charged with assaulting a young girl at Tammis, Ill., 29 miles north of here last Wednesday, were safely in jail here tonight, following threats to lynch them early today at Tammis, where they were in jail. Extra deputy sheriffs were guarding the jail, and Sheriff J. S. Roche of Alexander county said that no disorders were anticipated.

The men were brought to Cairo by Company K, 130th infantry, Illinois National Guard, the local militia company, after a crowd of persons had surrounded the Tammis jail and threatened to storm it.

T. B. Wilson, marshal of Tammis, refused to turn the prisoners over to Sheriff Roche, who appealed to Governor Len Small for troops. The governor immediately ordered the troops mobilized.

Troops Surround Jail
Going to Tammis in automobiles, the troops threw a cordon around the jail and dispersed the crowd. Marshal Wilson was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct when he had a dispute with one of the militia officers, but later was released.

Arraigned at Tammis, Hazelwood and Corbett waived the preliminary hearing before a police magistrate and were bound over to the grand jury. Bond was fixed at $5,000 each, which they failed to furnish, and the men were escorted to this city for safe keeping.

In their cells tonight both men emphatically denied the charge, which was preferred by the girl's father. They attributed the charge to a campaign against moonshiners, which is being conducted by Sheriff Roche. Corbett was a state's witness in several prohibition cases recently.

Sheriff Roche announced that he had revoked Hazelwood's commission as a deputy sheriff.

ITCHY PIMPLES DISFIGURED FACE

Large, Red and Festered. Cuticura Healed.

"My trouble began with pimples on my face. I picked them and they scattered worse than ever. The pimples were large, red and festered, and itched. I was always scratching them and they left red blotches all over my face which was very much disfigured."

"The trouble lasted about three years. I tried several remedies but none of them had any effect. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed."

the world to equal it. There is ample development of the transportation service essential to travel and there is comfortable accommodation now which demands will make luxurious whenever it is expressed.

Praise was bestowed on the people of Alaska by the president, "as the finest most hospitable people in all the world."

Territory's Citizenship
Indeed, he added, in citizenship and vigorous childhood, devoted to Alaska as the land of the Alaskan's homes lies the solution of the territory's problem. No magic wand made from federal treasury gold may be waved to effect the grand transformation. The processes of development and establishment of permanent and ample civilization lies in a citizenship with homes in Alaska, not in investors who are seeking Alaskan wealth to enrich homes elsewhere.

"Let me say that I shall undertake no more than a preliminary report at this time," he continued. "He who undertakes to forecast the future of Alaska and formulate a program for its realization on the strength of such a fleeting glimpse as has been permitted to me will be a wiser and a far bolder man than I. We have seen much that is only a little of the stupendous whole. More than all we have enormously strengthened our faith in the future of Alaska as the home of a great state in the American commonwealth. A brave, hardy, enterprising, uncomplaining people are building for Alaska's tomorrow precisely as our forefathers built for ours today in the older communities and I am sure that they will bring another great state into the union."

Prosperous Conditions
"There has been disposition in many quarters to assume that Alaska has been lately experiencing a serious backset. "This seems to be based on a loss of rather less than 15 per cent in population from 1910 to 1920, and on some curtailment in the territory's production of wealth. Judgments adverse to Alaska will not be based on such adventitious conditions save by the unintelligent or by those who would deliberately cry down the country's availability as a land of homes, in the hope of getting it turned over to wholesale exploitation on a scale that would ruin it for all the future. Against a program of ruinous exploitation we must stand firmly. Our adopted program must be a development of Alaska for Alaskans. "True it lost 15 per cent in population in the decade where the great war demoralized the entire world. But one province lost 80 per cent and another 60 per cent, respectively. Alaska is once more gaining in everything which testifies prosperity, but from the agricultural provinces of western Canada comes report of a still continuing exodus."

The States Losses
"Some of our foremost states lost notably in population between 1910 and 1920. The other day I read that 77,500 colored and 29,900 white people had left the Georgia farms. There are like reports from all over the South, and the farming sections of the west are not far behind. Australia and South Africa are offering direct money inducements to immigration and failing to get it. If we would take down our immigration bars, there would be a tidal wave of emigration from all central, southern, and southeastern Europe. Evidently Alaska is not alone in feeling the effects of the war on her population. Anyhow we have come in these later days to appraise population by its quality rather than quantity."

A. L. Henderson helped represent Franklin in the city yesterday.

SUNDAY BLUE LAW ENFORCEMENT HAS RAISED DISPUTES

Ludington Police Ordered to Ignore Prosecuting Attorney's Order

(By The Associated Press)
LUDINGTON, Mich., July 27.—The order of Virgil Pitch, prosecuting attorney of Mason county, that the state's almost obsolete Sunday blue laws be enforced throughout the county on every Sunday hereafter, today caused a defiant attitude on the part of city officials of Ludington, the largest center in the county.

In a formal statement, J. B. Matthews, city attorney, announced he had advised the city police to ignore the prosecutor's order, which would prevent motorists from driving their automobiles for pleasure on Sunday, close all ice cream parlors, garages and places of amusement and prevent issuance of Sunday newspapers.

In his statement the city attorney described the prosecutor's order as "hysteria" and "sticking to silly." The prosecutor had acted when club women and religious leaders demanded that dancing on Sunday be prohibited. K. L. Ashbacher, president of the Ludington Trade Bureau announced today, that most firms that usually open on Sundays would conduct their business as usual. The statement followed a ruling from the city attorney, that the only course for the prosecutor would be the filing of civil suits to collect fines. In his statement the city attorney charged the closing order was prompted by Roscoe Conkling Fitch, son of the prosecutor who some time ago was a witness in Chicago before the grand jury that investigated the death of Leighton Mount, former Northwestern University student.

STUDENT MISTAKEN FOR ESCAPED PATIENT

(By The Associated Press)
PETERSBURG, Ill., July 27.—A harmless agricultural student from the University of Illinois, was mistaken yesterday afternoon for one of the escaped patients from the Chester hospital for the criminal insane. Excitement spread rapidly when it was reported that a "wild looking man" was wandering from field to field acting in a peculiar manner. Farmers and farm hands armed themselves with guns and traced the "wild man" by his foot prints, and overtook him on the property of James Graham, near Fancy Prairie. They approached him with guns extended and demanded his name and business. The student stuttered his amazement, an when his temporary fright abated, told them he was only "a poor student" making soil tests.

COMMUTES SENTENCE
Dusseldorf, July 27.—The death sentence upon Paul Georg, German engineer of the Badische Anilin Co., of Ludwigshafen, has been commuted to imprisonment for life at hard labor it was announced here today, this action being taken by President Millerand. The engineer was convicted of sabotage by a court martial at Mayence on June 13.

GREAT VOLO TRIUMPHS OVER PETER THE GREAT

Returns from Grand Circuit Races Friday—The Summaries

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—(By The Associated Press) —For the third time this season in four starts, the Great Volo, Walter Cox's great trotter triumphed over Peter the Great in the dispatch stake for 2:30 trotters at today's Grand Circuit races. It was a desperately fought battle with only inches separating the two leaders and Czar Worthy being less than nose behind in the first two miles.

The Great Volo won each of the first two heats by a great rush at the finish after Czar Worthy had led practically all of the mile. In the third heat Peter the Great finished first with the Great Volo directly behind. The Desher Hotel stake for 2:11 pacers also was a split heat affair. The favored Hal Bee won the first two heats and Miss Ellen Todd, third choice took the third heat, after second choice Kate Hall had led the field to the half in one minute flat.

Ilo Guy, favorite in the 2:13 trot for three-year-olds failed to win a heat. The first and third heats went to Joe Mc favorite in the betting and the second heat was won by Eugenia Harvester.

The 2:09 pace which had thirteen starters furnished the afternoon's biggest surprise. Wrack, first choice, finished no better than second in any heat, while Buddy Mac, second choice, was distanced in the second heat.

Lady May C won the first two heats and LaPoloma the third one.

on the 160 yard 26th, when after dropping 20 feet over the flag, his comeback hit Sweetser's ball half way to the hole and he took four, conceding Jess the chance to hole in three.

Both Have Trouble
The struggle was beginning to tell on the players and they both had trouble in getting a five on the 450 yard 27th, where Evans had won with a birdie three in the first round. Evans had taken 37 out to Sweetser's 35. They played the tenth alike. Evans this time, however, after pushing his long iron to the trap, chipping out dead for a half in birdie four. They had to take five each on the 525 yard 29th for both pulled to the rough a trifle short of the green on their brassie second and chipped up short.

Sweetser this time found the dense wood in which he enmeshed his second in the afternoon—Evans squared the match at the 30th with a perfect three while Sweetser pulled his tee shot into the gallery. Again they halved the 220 yard hole in par three and drove well down the 23rd farway.

Overran Cup
Chick was on the green hole high in two, twenty feet to the right of the flag but Jess pulled to a trap and was short in three. He overran the cup several feet in four and pick up when Evans sank his par four to take a lead of one up again. The advantage was short lived for Chick hooked his spoon tee shot thru the gallery sweating up the steep hill to the left of the farway on the 350 yard 33rd and his ball landed in a grave of his tree directly behind enormous trunks which blocked the way to the green.

He chose a brassie and clinched around the obstacles in wonderful manner, but the ball was short of the green while Jess was on eight feet past the flag and squared the match with a par four as Evans could not get down a long for the like. They split on the maximum that the longest way around is the shortest way across on the dog-leg 34th, 395 yards for, while Jess drove around by the fairway Chick cut across thru the rough and duplicated his birdie on the first round by putting his 175 yard iron two feet past the cup, this time, to take the lead, while in the morning he had snatched the hole to square the match.

They halved the short 35th in ordinary per three and Chick was dornie one. Both got away fine drives on the 460 yard 18th but Chick pulled his brassie second to a trap short of the green while Jess was on in two forty feet from the cup, whence he fove down a birdie four to Evans' five and the contest was squared.

Sweetser Runs Pace
On the first extra hole 384 yards, they both drove about 260 yards but Chick was away. He pitched hole high twelve feet to the right while Jess fell short of the carpet a few inches. Sweetser ran his long approach twelve feet past the flag and while Chick was dead in three the player refused to be licked and sank the long putt for a half. The next hole is a dog-leg from a valley over a hill 150 feet long, with an equal valley in front of the green and then a pitch to a trap green, known as "the postage stamp" because of its comparative smallness.

Sweetser socked his ball clear over the hill straight as an arrow to within one hundred yards of the green of the 340 yard hole. Chick sliced his and was 25 yards short in the edge of the rough with a downhill lie. He played it gingerly and the ball straight on the pin hit the top of the front trap and fell back in the gulch. Jess laid on boldly and was clear over the carpet into an equally deep back trap. Evans chipped out ten feet short of the cup while Sweetser's niblick shot carried him 11 feet past the pin. He putted back to within 18 inches of the flag and Chick's putt was a trifle closer. The national champion stepped up to hit the ball and tapped it for the cup confidently expecting a half, but the pellet slipped down in side hill although very slight and refused to go down while Evans sank his for a five and won by a margin of one up in 38 holes in one of the greatest golf matches ever staged between two expert players. In the second round Evans had scored 37-35—72 to Sweetser's 35-36—71 for totals of 141 each so that their medal scoring for 36 holes was a tie also.

Two such double rounds as they played today would have totaled 282, or 14 strokes better than the low score made by Bobby Jones and Bobbie Cruikshank at Inwood in the recent national open meet and four strokes better than the record score for that event, made by Evans in 1916.

Evans and Sweetser after card: Evans-Out-PM—345354445—37
Sweetser-Out—454343335—35
Evans-In—453345335—35—72—141

FISHING LICENSES

Fishing licenses which were due July 1st were not received because of the delays incident upon putting in effect the provisions of the new law. Now County Clerk Riggs has been informed that the first consignment of licenses will be here about August 1. It is understood that the lack of licenses has not put fishing at a stand still, as authorities have recognized that the reason anglers are without licenses is because of the unavoidable delay in issuance.

THOUSANDS OF K. K. K. GATHERED LAST NIGHT

Klansmen From Three Counties Assembled Near Merritt Under Blazing Cross—Report Class of 700 Taken Into Order at Impressive Ceremonies.

Thousands of members of the Ku Klux Klan from Morgan, Scott and Sangamon counties are understood to have assembled last night on the Gabe Chrisman farm near Merritt. It is reported that admission to the field where the meeting was held was by ticket.

A special train of three coaches arrived in this city from Springfield at 7:45 o'clock last night over the C. & A., and a large delegation of Klansmen were taken from the train in trucks and cars to the place of meeting. A number of those in the conveying party were recognized as Scott county citizens.

Two observers who went to the place of meeting on the Chrisman farm, reported that most of the Ku Klux were in uniform, but with the hoods thrown back. It is understood that the Springfield delegation members did not wear masks during the trip to this city on the special train.

Other witnesses who went to the scene stated that the field was covered with men in uniforms. The ceremonies were held under a blazing fiery cross about forty feet high. The cross was illuminated by hundreds of electric lights. Observers stated that the whole scene was very impressive. They estimated the number of Klansmen at more than two thousand, saying that at least 500 autos were parked along the road adjacent to the meeting place.

The field where the meeting was held was closely guarded, it is said, by sentries inside and outside the fence, and by a large force at the gate. Spectators were kept at considerable distance from the scene of action. It is reported that a class of seven hundred was initiated into the order. The ceremonies were supposed to start at 10:30 o'clock last night and continue until 3 o'clock this morning.

CALHOUN GRATEFUL FOR BIG APPLE CROP

Residents of "Little Kingdom" Make First Apple Sales of Season—$1.50 Per Barrel Is Popular Price for Bumper Yield

The first apple sales in Calhoun, the great apple county, were recently made according to the Calhoun News. The general price paid so far has been in the neighborhood of $1.50 per barrel on the tree, one grower disposing of an estimated crop of 12,000 barrels at that figure.

The immense apple crop of this season is unusually appreciated by the residents of that county, as the crop last year brought a very small price and prior to that they had two seasons with practically no crop, one of the years being an entire failure on account of late frost. Any one not versed in fruit culture would become very much discouraged in the looks of Calhoun county, as the ground is very rough and broken, steep hills, poor roads, and in most cases a roundabout way from the orchards to passable roads. Practically the entire population is dependent on an apple crop, and when this fails the county is in a predicament. And well, they may feel blue for the land is not adaptable in any great extent to any other product. For once the fruit is of an unusual quality and seems to be in great demand with good prices.

MAY BUY ROAD FROM GRAFTON TO ALTON

C. & A. Said to Be prospective Purchasers for Part of C. P. & St. L.

Along with the announcement of the sale of the C. P. & St. L. railroad September 26 comes the story from the Bloomington Pan-telegraph that the Chicago & Alton may buy a part of the road. In support of this story is the fact that surveyors for the C. & A. are now engaged in running levels for extension of the Elmdale branch of the road to Grafton. At that point it will be possible to connect with the 20 mile stretch of C. P. & St. L. road extending from Grafton to Alton.

The Chicago & Alton for several months past has been engaged in building an extension of the Elmdale branch thru Greene county south into Jersey for a distance of five or six miles in order to give the farmers of Calhoun county access to the river & railroad outlet for their products.

Now it appears that a further extension of five miles to Grafton would make possible the acquiring of a part of the C. P. & St. L. and thus give the C. & A. a double track between Alton and Roodhouse. The C. & A. would also thus have an entire railroad monopoly of freight and passenger traffic in the western portion of Greene and Jersey counties, where a large amount of freight now originates.

The fact that the surveyors are at work and that estimates on the cost of construction will be made from Elmdale to Grafton gives color to this rumored C. P. & St. L. purchase.

DR. J. R. HARKER TALKS TO ROTARIANS

Anniversary of Beginning of World War Was Subject of Address Before Rotary Club Friday Noon—Rev. W. H. Marbach Is Also Speaker

The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club was held at the Pacific hotel Friday noon. Dr. J. R. Harker, president of Illinois Woman's college, was the principal speaker and brief remarks were also made by Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church.

The two guests of the day, Will Sanford of Great Falls, Mont., and Harvey D. Atkins of this city, were introduced by President H. Dolear. Henry C. Goebel and Dr. A. C. Bolle were introduced as the newest members of Rotary.

Dr. Harker's talk was in commemoration of the ninth anniversary of the beginning of the World war, and was heard with great interest. Rev. Mr. Marbach recalled the fact that five years ago the young men of this nation entered the great conflict, and quoted an article from a church paper to the effect that Europe is again preparing for war. The speaker said that he considered France somewhat of a menace to the world. That nation, he said, now has 800 war planes and that 1,000 more have been contracted for, while next year's contract will call for the building of 2,000 additional war planes. The speaker said that the United States could not isolate itself from the world, and that in case war breaks out in Europe there will be no way for this country to keep out of it.

Greatest War in History

Paragraphs from Dr. Harker's address are given herewith:

Nine years ago, out of what seemed a clear sky, the greatest war storm in the world's history suddenly burst upon us. In a few days Germany, Russia, England, France and Belgium were at war. In a few months the whole world was involved; the titanic conflict waged with increasing bitterness and ferocity, with most appalling destruction of life and property for more than four years, not ending until November, 1918, when Germany, the aggressor in the conflict, had been utterly crushed and made unconditional surrender.

It is not necessary to try to tell again the fearful destructiveness of the conflict. The loss, direct, in human life, present and prospective, is beyond all telling. It staggers all our powers of calculation to estimate the loss in property and wealth. It will take a hundred years of toil and constructive energy to replace what was so wantonly destroyed. Property which was more than 2,000 years in accumulating was in four years' time more than half destroyed.

Many Observances

It will be more profitable for us to endeavor to learn from this sad experience how to make such things impossible for our children. To this end it has been proposed to observe the anniversary on how to prevent war. Such meetings have been arranged in 36 states. Woman's organizations are linked with men's organizations, Rotary and Kiwanis and other clubs in 18 different nations. There will be great and stirring observances of these days for this purpose in England, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Austria, Russia, France, Holland, Poland, Spain, Switzerland, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Egypt, China, India and Japan. Pageants are planned in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago and other large cities.

We recall the words of President Harding at the pier at Hoboken when he stood in view of 5,000 of our dead in their flag draped coffins, who had been brought from France. He said: "I have tried to visualize the carnage and conflict and horrors and suffering of war, but never have I understood how imagination had failed me until I look upon these 5,000 coffins. Here is death in war's unheeding allotment, corridors of sorrow and sacrifice as far as the eye can see, and grief that no human soul can appraise. Under the spell of the great sorrow that grips our hearts, we say and repeat, 'It must not be again! It must not be again! But saying is not enough. We must do the things which atonement thinking leads us to believe will tend to render war less likely. It certainly looks as if the world is already forgetting the awful orgy of destruction that war involves.

Prepare for Next War General Pershing is urging us to prepare for the next war. Secretary of Navy Denby insists on a larger navy. Secretary of War Weeks advises that our army must be increased in preparation for the next war. The president recommends a plan to draft all the resources of our republic, human and material, so that we will be ready for the next war. France is ready, and apparently eager to fight; England is feverishly anxious, but equally determined; Russia and Turkey are apparently willing and eager and ready.

Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet.

Let us forget, lest we forget.

Now what have we to say about it.

We have to say:

1. That war is abhorrent to all our better natures.

2. That war is diametrically opposed to the spirit of Christ.

3. That war is antagonistic to the spirit of Rotary.

4. That we believe that nations are subject to God's laws.

5. That we believe in international law, and in the universa
